

Stance Equitec CoolEnergy®

Complete hemp feed for horses

- Low sugar and starch - safe for laminitic horses
- Good source of amino acids for muscle development
- Antioxidants and probiotic for gut support
- High fibre feed for condition maintenance

What is Cool Energy?

This feed is a high quality natural source of protein and fibre for all horses and ponies. Stance Equitec CoolEnergy® contains hemp hulls and hemp flour, vitamins, minerals and a probiotic to support general wellbeing. It may help build muscle and topline as well as support gut, skin and coat health. This feed is nutritionally balanced, making it a great base or additive feed.

Stance Equitec CoolEnergy® is 100% grain free and contains less than 1% sugars and starch so it is safe to feed to laminitic prone, EMS and PPID horses and ponies.

Hemp is a quality source of protein containing all essential amino acids to assist with muscle integrity, development and recovery.

Stance Equitec CoolEnergy® contains natural antioxidants, probiotic and fermentable fibres to promote a healthy gut microbiome.

Feeding Guidelines

Testimonial

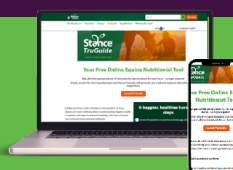

"Stance Equitec CoolEnergy® is a great choice for both of my horses. My 29yo pony has PPID (cushing's) and my 19yo dumblood has always been prone to crestiness and fat lumps, so a high fibre and low NSC diet is essential. I was rapt to discover this feed!"
